

Access To Premier Inn, Tyr'Felin, Lower Mill Field, Pontypool, NP4 0RH

It is not possible to safely access Premier Inn, Pontypool on foot by following the main roads such as the A4042 (despite what Google says). If you arrive by train the following is the suggested walking route from the railway station.

Walking Route From Pontypool And New Inn Railway Station To Premier Inn, Pontypool

From railway station forecourt turn R on to access road. At T junction cross road (The Highway) carefully and turn R on pavement. Pass cemetery on R hand side of road. Ignore L turn (Coed Camlas) and immediately turn L on to Cycle Way 49 before canal bridge. Turn L along canal. Pass stone wall over river on L, soon turn L down steps at sign*. At bottom of steps straight on along path in woods with river on L. On reaching wooden footbridge on R, cross bridge and at end of path cross road. Premier Inn, Pontypool is on the R.

*Sign reads 'Keep to path. Steep drop to river'.

The walk outlined above takes approx. 15 minutes. Alternatively a taxi can be taken from the railway station and will cost about £6.00. The railway station is not manned and there is no taxi rank. The following are some local taxi firms:

Gwent Cars 01495 75 1010
Fab Cabs 01495 75 6511
Mia's Cars 01495 76 7922

The station forecourt has an information board with a simple map of the immediate area which will help with orientation.
