NOTES TO THE CLAIM FORM

Use this form for ONE Register and ONE claimant only. Please reprint or photocopy if applying for more than one Register or more than one person. If the claim is for a second or subsequent completion of a Register please indicate this in the 'Further Notes or Comments' box. If the claimant is under 16, then the claim should be countersigned by a parent or guardian.

If any box is not large enough, please put your comments on a separate sheet.

If you have any questions, please email hillwalker@ldwa.org.uk before sending the form. That could avoid a lot of unnecessary correspondence.

Please complete page 1 of the form in UPPER CASE, and send it to:

David Purchase, HR Recorder, Flat 7 Avonview, 9 Downleaze, Stoke Bishop, BRISTOL, BS9 1NA.

The following descriptions refer to the individual Notes on page 1.

Note 1: Name that you wish to be recorded: I am afraid that we are unable to hold two different names for the same person. So if you are already on a Register under the name A B Smith, and you now submit a claim under the name Alan Smith, then you could become two separate individuals. If you have changed your name (e.g. on marriage) then your earlier entries will be updated to your current name.

Full forenames, and your date of birth, just help me to ensure that I don't confuse you with somebody else!

Note 2: Register No.: The Registers are:

1	The 2,000ft hills of England and Wales	3	County Tops:
2	The Lake District hills:	3A	County Tops of England and Wales
2A	The Wainwrights (214 fells)	3B	County Tops of Ireland
2B	The Outlying Fells (116 fells)	4	The 2,000ft hills of Ireland
2C	The Birketts (541 fells)	5	Deweys (500m hills):
2D	The Fellrangers (227 fells)	5A	Deweys of England, Wales & Isle of Man
		5B	Donald Deweys (i.e. in southern Scotland)

Note 3: Reference Lists used. The HR Recorder takes a fairly relaxed view about sources, but just wishes to know that your list is comparable with others. For example in Register 1 there are 317 Hewitts and 446 Nuttalls (the usual sources). A claim based only on the 103 Marilyn's over 2,000ft would not be acceptable.

The Database of British and Irish Hills (DoBIH) is now the most reliable online source for all Registers. It can be downloaded from www.hills-database.co.uk or used online at www.hill-bagging.co.uk. Note that, except for Register 3, it is an accurate current record of hills in other lists, and your claim is still based on the list you use.

Fuller lists of known sources are given on the LDWA HR website, under the appropriate Register. Here I note only the lists which are current and most frequently used.

For Register 1, currently most walkers use the Nuttalls list or the Dawson lists (the Hewitts).

For Registers 2A to 2D a source is not required as, even if you use a source such as DoBIH, you are still basically using the original source, albeit in a different form.

For Register 3A, currently the most used sources are Bridge, Dawson, Muir and DoBIH.

For Register 3B, Clements is often used, though it takes a bit of effort to identify all the County Tops. Gribbon, DoBIH and (the excellent) mountainviews.ie are the most convenient sources.

For Register 4, the likely sources are Dillon and Clements (the latter listing the Irish Hewitts). DoBIH lists the hills in each of these sources (and some others). And mountainviews.ie is also fine.

For Register 5A, the list of 373 hills in Michael Dewey's 1995 book is no longer acceptable. For the up-to-date list of 426 Deweys, see DoBIH or request a copy (available by email only) from the Recorder.

For Register 5B, the only valid sources are the original list compiled by the Recorder (available by email on request), or the list in DoBIH (or any list acknowledging that as its source).

Note 4: Time taken for completion. Please give this as accurately as you can, but don't worry if you can't recall when you started: an approximate figure is quite acceptable.

Note 5: Scotland's County Tops Ascended ? If you are submitting a claim for Register 3A (County Tops of England and Wales) please indicate whether you have also visited all the County Tops of Scotland.

General Data Protection Regulations: The details you have supplied will be held on a computer file for administration purposes only. The HR and LDWA will never pass on your details to third parties. The only data which is publicly accessible is your certificate name and the dates and final hills of the Registers you have completed. (If you don't wish that to be displayed, there is not much point in going onto the Register !)

Once or twice a year we may email you to ask for an update to your current Register entries or Progress Reports. If you prefer not to receive such messages, please say so in the 'Further Comments' box. You can opt out of these messages at any time.
